In the Shadow of Pike's Peak : An Illustrated History of Colorado Springs Mark L. Gardner

By sunlight, moonlight or starlight it is invariably magnificent. Pike's Peak may be America's mountain, but it is ours more. And it will be here a long, long time after we are gone, casting its massive shadow onto a seemingly endless plain. In the Shadow of Pike's Peak chronicles those who have made their home under the most famous mountain in the Rockies. Though the inhabitants of the Pike's Peak region have always been an evolving and innovative people, the mountain that has given this region its identity remains a steadfast landmark through history.
