Later her attitude changes but how can she convince him that she has had a change of heart especially as she has allowed herself to be wooed by Ryan, an old flame who ditched her for someone else many years ago? In order to raise money for her dream café she is faced with having to sell the field which is home to three donkeys and one goat from the animal rescue centre. Should she follow her heart or her business head? Deirdre has always relied on her little white pills to get her over her husband's infidelities but her world collapses when Steve asks for a divorce.
