Single-mother and artist Lizzy Gardiner relied on her sister, Jane, and her brother-in-law, Charles Bingley, when she fled her husband two years ago. However, when they introduce her to Charles' friend, William Darcy, who has just returned from England, he doesn't make the best first or even second impression. Can the two of them leave not only their initial prejudices, but also their pasts behind and find love with each other or will the ghosts of the past return to keep them apart? Also contains a vignette to A Matter of Chance. Contains scenes with adult content and a bit of adult language.
