Charlie and the Chocolate Factory meets Clue when six children navigate a mansion full of secrets—and maybe money—in this this humorous mystery with heart.

Sweet, shy Tabitha Crum, the neglected only child of two parents straight out of a Roald Dahl book, doesn't have a friend in the world—except for her pet mouse, Pemberley, whom she loves dearly. But on the day she receives one of six invitations to the country estate of wealthy Countess Camilla DeMoss, her life changes forever.

Upon the children's arrival at the sprawling, possibly haunted mansion, the countess reveals that each of the six children is adopted, and that one of them is her long-lost grandchild—and heir to a large fortune. Not only that, but the countess plans to keep and raise her grandchild, regardless of what the adoptive parents have to say about it.

Then the children begin disappearing, one by one. So Tabitha takes a cue from her favorite detective novels and, with Pemberley by her side, attempts to solve the case and rescue the other children...who just might be her first real friends.

Colleen Edwards:

As a scholar exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or even make summary for some book, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart and soul or real their pastime. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Nooks & Crannies can make you feel more interested to read.
