The Silent Service: Virginia Class H. Jay Riker

The U.S.S. Virginia -- the first in the most technologically advanced new class of U.S. attack submarines -- sets sail, even as the Navy's high-tech submarine program falls under attack from a Congress that believes it unnecessary. But a threat no one anticipated is gliding silently through dangerous waters. A rogue Kilo-class submarine built by a shadowy and powerful ally has become the latest weapon in al Qaeda's terrorist arsenal. The submarine's brutal strikes have created an explosive hostage situation in the Pacific ... and have left hundreds of people dead.

This new and stealthy terrorist threat must be eliminated before more innocent lives are lost. But the officers, crew, and Navy SEALs aboard the Virginia will face more than they anticipated in the turbulent waters of the South China Sea -- as one untried American sub races toward an explosive confrontation with an old, cunning, and ruthless enemy.

Miranda Durkee:

As a college student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their interest. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Silent Service: Virginia Class can make you sense more interested to read.
