El enigma de Constantino el Grande (Spanish Edition) Albert Salvadó

El emperador Constantino el Grande es una de las figuras más impresionantes y controvertidas de la historia universal.

Sus decisiones son un verdadero enigma que esta obra desvela magistralmente. Su vida es un sinfín de luchas y conquistas, amistades y odios, amores y desamores, grandezas y miserias, noblezas y crímenes, engaños y traiciones. Y él, desde la humildad del hombre que se enfrenta a su muerte, hace balance de todo.

Fue el último de los grandes emperadores. Hijo bastardo de Constancio Cloro, reunificó el Imperio romano por última vez, concedió la libertad a los cristianos, creó el primer ejército móvil, instituyó la moneda única (el Solidus, verdadero precursor del Euro), fundó Constantinopla, asesinó con sus propias manos... y vivió un gran amor con Minervina, su primera esposa.

Sumergirse en la vida de Constantino es revivir una época increíble y descubrir el gran misterio de sus decisiones, aparentemente absurdas y contradictorias y, a pesar de todo, cargadas de una lógica sorprendente e implacable que Albert Salvadó nos dibuja con pulso firme y mano maestra. Una obra que jamás se olvida y que mereció ser finalista en el I Premio Néstor Luján de Novela Histórica.

¿Qué ha dicho la crítica?

El enigma de Constantino el Grande es un libro ameno y con un programa de pretensiones bien dimensionado. Un libro que se dirige a un segmento amplio de lectores que difícilmente se sentirán defraudados al llegar a la última página. (Joan Isern, AVUI)
