Now Jake is back and determined to help keep Triple Z Ranch with the Reilly family, but Zaria won't be fooled again and she won't let her son get too attached to the man with a history of running.

Can Zaria trust Jake when he says tells her he's in it for the long haul or is it just another empty promise?

Jake regrets leaving Beloved behind and never looking back, but forces beyond his control conspired to keep him away. Now a successful attorney, Jake and found Zaria and his son Zach and he won't walk away again...even if Zaria can't forgive him.

Is Jake strong enough to knock down Zaria's walls or will he have to settle for a life where the only love he gets comes from his son?
