Journey to the West Cheng-En Wu

The novel is an extended account of the legendary pilgrimage of the Tang dynasty Buddhist monk Xuanzang who traveled to the "Western Regions", that is, India, to obtain sacred texts (s?tras) and returned after many trials and much suffering. It retains the broad outline of Xuanzang's own account, Great Tang Records on the Western Regions, but the Ming dynasty novel adds elements from folk tales and the author's invention, that is, that the Buddha gave this task to the monk and provided him with three protectors who agree to help him as an atonement for their sins. These disciples are Sun Wukong, Zhu Bajie, and Sha Wujing, together with a dragon prince who acts as Xuanzang's steed, a white horse.

Journey to the West has strong roots in Chinese folk religion, Chinese mythology, Taoist and Buddhist philosophy, and the pantheon of Taoist immortals and Buddhist bodhisattvas are still reflective of some Chinese religious attitudes today. Enduringly popular, the tale is at once a comic adventure story, a spring of spiritual insight, and an extended allegory in which the group of pilgrims journeys towards enlightenment which each of them can achieve only with the help of all of the others.

This is part one of the book.

As a pupil exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or even make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's spirit or real their interest. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Journey to the West can make you truly feel more interested to read.
